

A warm welcome and thank you very much again for the trust you have placed in us!

With this letter, I would like to provide you with some helpful information for your arrival and your stay at the accommodation.

Arrival

The exact address of the building is: Lindenstraße 3, 02979 Spreetal.

And this is what your accommodation looks like:

Parking

You can park your car directly in front of the accommodation in the designated parking space marked "Sophia L" in front of the property.

Check-in

Check-in is relaxed and flexible via an on-site lockbox, so you don't have to worry about any time pressure or stress upon arrival.

And here is how to find your accommodation:

The entrance to your apartment is located on the main street.

There is a lockbox marked "Sophia L" on the right side of the door frame in the entrance area.

You have already received the current code in a separate message.

Open the black cover to reveal the dial. Then, enter the current code and press the black switch downwards. You can now take the key and close the lockbox again. Please scramble the combination lock before heading to the apartment.

The entrance to your apartment is located behind the stairs on the 1st floor. Your apartment is named "Sophia L":

Have a great time at the accommodation, and please let us know if there is anything else we can do for you!
